

SPECIAL EDUCATION

The Special Education programs in the College of Education at Auburn University at prepare teachers to provide specially designed instruction for students with exceptionalities and to work across diverse educational settings. Courses focus on topics such as; Assistive Technology, Autism, Behavior Management, Assessment, Applied Behavior Analysis, STEM, and High Incidence Disabilities.

Career Paths

Early childhood special education teacher
Elementary special education teacher
Secondary special education teacher
Special education coordinator
Homebound Instruction

Inclusive Pre-school Teacher
Hospitals/Rehabilitation Facilities
Group Homes
Parent Program Consultant
Local, State, and Federal Departments

Bachelor (Undergraduate) B-12 Certification

- Format — innovative use of online and hybrid courses
- Earn up to three certificates in special education (Early Childhood Special Education, Collaborative K-6, and Collaborative 6-12) in one degree

Master of Education (M.Ed.) (Traditional & Alternative)

- Traditional Master’s Format — Fully online
- Alternative Master’s Format — Online and hybrid courses
- Results in a substantial pay raise
- BS Professional Educator Certificate in ANY teaching field can be admitted to the traditional master’s program

Education Specialist (Ed.S.)

- Format — Fully online
- Possible to complete in 5 semesters
- Results in a substantial pay raise
- Master’s Professional Educator Certificate in ANY teaching field area can be admitted

SCHOLARSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

AUM Military & Dependent Scholarship
www.aum.edu/admissions/military/scholarships

Educator Advancement Program
www.aum.edu/edadvancement/

QUESTIONS? Contact us at (334) 244-3386

AUM’s Special Education program is fully accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS) and the Council for Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP).